

A Pungent Pain In Your Hindu Thymus - Conversion of Hindus - Sociological acumen for lasting peace in Sanatana societies

yajño vai śreṣṭhatamaṃ karma

The only Truth that stays on in every Yuga, and thus here I begin. Advising all non-Hindu speakers to remember if nothing that Hindi and Devanagari are a bugida for a reason today. Thus, even if you are an Abrahamic or worse a Left wing Mongoloid to join my reasoning of what I have to say.

Introduction

It is not that without conflict we become complacent. It is not that in passivity the truth is not lost, it is that when the Hindu seeks to atone for what has been done to him he forgets the sufferings of others. As an author it is not expected that everyone will agree with me, what is more important is that that act which represents criminal destruction of an ancient value system must be prevented, not because Hindus are not united but because the world - whole humanity today plays games with the idea of Left and Right, East and West, Unitary and Fragmentary, Occident and Orient. I admit I cannot bring along a lot of traditions and national identities or most forms of collective chest thumping because of the elevation required to speak on such intense brutality. It is sure, that what I say must be done else not just Indians or Hindus, but the whole of the world will only delay it's suffering and bring more foolish steps towards itself and against itself.

There are only two factions I speak with when I speak in material terms - the Hindus who as a whole must not let go of their brethren in times of political upswings after coronavirus and other natural calamities to come and the lower the Right of India in BSP (other than the upper Right of BJP and allies like Akalis and BJD etc.). The problem is not that the Left is foolish, they simply will not understand what the Right is trying to say. To slaughter, to kill for structural benefits of the whole is ingrained in the highest echelons of Left let alone the lower history of Indian Left in Bengal and further. The Tamil Left is again just trying to dominate a narrative - trying to be Tamil when they are nothing but the Southern Punjab problem of Andhra Pradesh. The desire to separate as a State as per the wish of archaic Nizams who ignore what Uppaluri Gopalchari Krishnamurti stood for in practice.

rūdanti kauravā: sarve hā hā ke-śava ke-śava ||

ke means water pANDava also means fish and kaurava also means crow. Hence the interpretation is : Seeing the corpse (shava) fallen in water, the fish were overjoyed. All the crows, however, started crying .. " O the corpse in water !!!"

This can also be interpreted as the foolishness of a scripture that speaks of five people who all lost their progeny -

parasparavirodhe tu vayam pañcaśca te śatam |
paraistu vighrahe prāpte vayam pañcādhikam śatam ||

While fighting with each other, we are five and they are hundred. While fighting with others (enemy) we are hundred plus five.

This are words of Yudhiṣṭhira (dharmarāja). In arāṇyaparva (i.e. when pāṇḍava were in vana-vāsa i.e. in jungle (forest exile) for 12 yrs), pāṇḍava got a news that kaurava are under attack from gandharvas and were losing the battle. In fact gandharvas had defeated Kauravas and imprisoned them. That time, bhīma's opinion was, not to help Kaurava, because they were pāṇḍava's enemy. Bhīma was happy that their job was done by gandharvas. That time Yudhiṣṭhira said that even if Kaurava were enemies, they were their brothers, and pāṇḍava must help them in that crisis.

This is the last 'śloka' in the Rigveda. It states - Let your conclusions be one (or be alike), Let your hearts be the same (or be alike) [So that "everyone" feels for the same particular bad/ill in the society in the same intensity. It may be the common experience that not all feel the same problem in the 'intensity' that we as individuals may feel for that. Due to this there may be a lack of 'collective' efforts to solve that problem]. Let your minds think alike/similar.

It is not without reason that those who seek to understand the world do so by understanding the fundamental way to approach the idea of directions, geographies and coastlines. It is wholly another domain what the world outside the habitable is to structured for perception - Space or Akash.

While some people, very sparse, in Iran understand what Rizals also mean, it is in a small part of Maharashtra in Vidarbha that once Astrologers once controlled how the Earth was prevented from colliding with meteors. Because Hindus declined in numbers after the rise of Abrahamic religions, you have given that art away to the Western Mohammedans and face sporadic farmer suicides and agrarian distress since decades in modern, independent India. Because they have finally erred in 2023, they themselves are in economic distress only to be ignored by non-Skoothies such as South, West and East India - who do not know how to deal with China in Communism and West massacred Red Indian spirits that infest our technologically dominated Capitalizing Europe.

Nature is nowhere near a friend with oncoming bio-warfare and biohazards not just nuclear weapons in a post-Covid geopolitical techtonics but even the nature red in tooth and claw all the more apparent clearly since WW2. It was the wish of the German Christian movement in Lutheran and Calvinism to invoke their ancestral Tvashtar to besiege and walk into Indian Hinduism with their Nazism. They ignore the capacities of the risen Hindus who are not bound by structural problems that the caste based hierarchies in India and are being checked by Sikhs while bleeding.

India has been doctored to ignore the Shramanas for countless millenia. And even today, the Russki are being challenged to prove that they understand Buddhism, that the West Asian gates at Jerusalem indeed once were fertile grounds to Hindus is being harassed. With structures against Shaivism that prevailed there - even in the TV YT Turkish series watchers where once Shaivas flourished. Your only problem in pessimism seems Capitalism of US, AI of US and their capacity to cut. In actuality the gates of hell are always open to those who need to use them. You do not need to visit the Shushan Gate or the other seven. They are but only man made creations to symbolize what you all anyway broke when traveling to India.

There are two types of people who should be pushed in deep water with heavy stones tied to their body! One who does not donate inspite of being rich and the other who does not work hard inspite of being poor !!

Capitalism is precursored by incorrect application of knowledge. Very easily if you hear UG Krishnamurti - Einstein should be tied to a rock and thrown into the river, he said. Einstein is also someone who had a loyal friend in his grandson, who reached the asylum. Because not that the nuclear bomb was incorrectly used only. But because anyway now, things are back to square one.

Starving mother might leave her own son, starving snake might eat her own eggs, What sin can a starved not do? People, who are helpless, get merciless when its a question of life and death for them.

Thus I begin the subject by pointing to the fallacy in Abrahamics before moving towards the problems in India

ajñāḥ sukhāmārādhyāḥ sukhātaramārādhyate viśeṣajñāḥ |
jñānalavadurvidagdhāṃ brahmāpi taṃ naraṃ na rañjayati ||

It's very easy to convince an uneducated person. It's even more easy to convince a person who has complete knowledge. But a person who develops a false pride on basis of half-knowledge gained, cannot be convinced even by God.

You have Noam Chomsky arguing that because of restrictions on research, infants cannot be kept in isolation to see how knowledge and language develops. He touches on something even better in a world where on one hand you have a doctrine double entendre in legal common law domains while preaching European secularism, which accounts actions one on the religious collective registers and another on the social legal registers. All Abrahamic people do not touch the Karmas of their bodies, they are wholly work on Tapas and the Akashic records, everything in between is ignored and thus as a Shramanic spoke on a Hindi news channel - Only Hindus understand how tattvas create the world and no one else.

That is the simple truth. But more than creating a people who are looking for food with a bag of the tasty stuff hung right on their back, Abrahamics also have mutilated the world, then in rage, their mediators Bauddhas have been wiped out and finally you have a sparse few living in India and collecting Jaina books! While both sects are being bad-named. It is true that they are not wholly understood by Hindus and the Sikhs are doing good work. It is wholly something else that Abrahamics are much in trouble now when they have to deal with the East of Asia in China.

Coming to look not at Hebrews, Turkish or Christians for I wish to speak to them in separate books regarding their Theology in a constructive way. Let me point to what is happening near West.

uṣṭrāṇāṃ ca vivāheṣu gītaṃ gāyanti gardabhāḥ: parasparaṃ praśaṃsanti aho rupamaho dhvani:

Donkeys are singing song in a weddings of camels. Both are praising each other, (donkeys say) how beautiful (camels are), (camels say) what a pleasant voice (of donkeys. i.e. donkeys are good singers).

The fallacies of what the Mohammadians are doing is even worse. And many many of them know it with what they are doing in Palestine and to Palestine.

The Hindus have not united since a very long time and that was the problem that Vallabhai Patel referred to when quoting the Rig Veda. It is not that the Western coast is unitary but has no value for human life and that East is fragmentary but values human life the answer is also that as per Greeks for one, the whole is greater than it's parts. Then, the parts are greater than the whole and now as per AI studying West the interaction of the parts creates the Whole. I do not want to expend beyond that in matters of what is happening amidst Orthodox and Catholics and the Saudis and Eastern Mohammadians.

In India not only do you have rampant resolve in pedestrian Muslims to convert Dalits and the economically downtrodden. This problem is wholly ignored by the Indian Left. In fact, their vestigial argument is that a Veda studied Brahmin is leading that Marxist bloc. Their argument stems from his inability to sway the founders of Janata Party such as Sitaram Goel, who are missing from debate because of what history did by Panchsheel agreements in Pakistan and India.

Corruption grows, everyday there are reports of police mismanagement, mental health deterioration, while economic packages and pensions and financial assistances are being doled out, the bureaucracy admits to emerging faults - suicides, dogs in stadium evacuated for walks, police refusals to work for the benefit of the system in correctness for structural and thus political mileage and power. Repeatedly for months in Hindi newspapers in UP everyday there are reports of conversions. And yet the world in India is more interested in stone temples in Ayodhya and elsewhere. You will give free food there and electrical substations in the very same Hindi belt where as per a Mr. Chaudhary in a Left wing interview to Karan Thapar 75,000 people die annually in railtrack crossing mishaps. Is this political? When you are unwilling to stop bully, pan chewing, feet touching, tilak dhari policeman from pushing Mathura widows around in Neena Gupta's Benares films? The elite Indians will speak of Masai tribes in Africa and their allergy to vaccination, but Maneka Gandhi will only blame institutions when speaking of old-aged cow slaughter and canning from across India in Bangladesh.

Dalits are repeatedly being bullied by inhuman, deviant youth who befriend widowed Hindu women and are filmed on mobile phones while stoning and doing away with such women after they have had their iftikhar party with them. Repeatedly you want to eulogize the Saharanpur belt and Bundelkhand belt for it's goons and call them to politics. Devanagari right Mahars will also learn Bundelkhandi but will not accept they are stealing your Dalit woman and men everyday. You will give shawls to Pakistan and sweets on Independence day for photos to the British who you conquered with Rishi Sunak. If a thousand such son-in-laws sit in one line for the PM-ship they cannot bring back the money the Protestants stole from you. But because you had a Himalayan guru to a Left infested South Indian stock market regulatory leader you will put money in the guesswork market as Arun Shourie calls it? I think it is personally shameful that at first instead of uplifting our Dalits out of poverty we are more interested in lavish buildings and charity in line with Christian and Mohammedan zakats.

Repeatedly we are reactionary to their practices and virtues instead of building our own, the middle class upper castes are turning non-vegetarian.

yādṛśaṃ bhakṣayedannaṃ jāyate tādṛśī prajā ||

The lamp eats the darkness and gives birth to soot (generates soot). The food you eat has an influence on the offspring.

The Hindu mindset is repeatedly to encourage festival spendings and Akshay Tritiyas when old men and women are without food across India.

The Machine of Conversions - Evil of the Left Wing

The face of the Left wing is always beautiful. And they are uglier than your worst nightmare. All English speaking Indians will break their English in fear of them and happily listen to Arnab Goswami arguing in peace. Karan Thapar speaks from Vedic vehicles of body and is drifting further Left since Congress. His Wikipedia entry is bad-named for the public. You cannot beat his Hinduism, only chide a foolish West degree Assamese who claims to represent your middle brow English. Repeatedly, the Left tells you it is only Areligious and makes a show of it's gladness to be with you. These are people who want mass slaughters for structural reform and ugly 20 rs Tshirt bought from favela second hands of French fashion shows of Maserati and Ferrari to goon you.

You cannot stop pitying them and shooting them lawfully but you will argue and fight as an elite salad eating, iPhone shop fighting tired of the world so rich people.

The working of conversions cannot be checked only by law but as a South Indian says by teaching morality before religiosity. Because it is true that there is intense inner suffering, but unlike the Mohammaden, you as a Hindu truly understand there is no nation, and not because Pakistanis are tapas liking but because you speak as a human being not as a word float number in the Etheric descent life of light. Hinduism and I am tired of pointing this out is bottom up. It is only ascent. No Irish Catholics in elite Christianity and suffering are required to understand this. All this foolishness of building temples after demolishing mosques is a cultural gift to old age angry Hindu men who nearly got themselves castrated in Sanjay Gandhi days and today are selling beautiful daughters from posh rooms in political might of goons and religious foolhardiness. Repeatedly the Jats and Punjabis by now fully corrupted from ISI drugs and maleccha mantras reaching into their border ears and pesticide and fertilizer food farm money trips abroad are rolling in the rain stinking in anger. Even after 10 years of BJP rule, the Akalis are fragmenting and out of power to stop the ISI. If it really mattered which party came to power in East, why would you chose an ex-Congressman to power in Assam, then why does it burn today, because well you think it is okay to present tribes as regressive while killing animals in Nepal is okay. Hindus in majority do not understand that the body and how it looks is secondary to elite dogmas and doctrines, if a Kashmiri Brahmin can get by looking absolutely Muslim despite his Sharda script why must you have Chinese and Catholic incursions in North East? Why must you gawk at near daily police refusal in some HQ against finding a sister or mother or daughter? If Shahrukh Khan can rule your hearts by smoking ITC Classics in times of Red Bengal and helping Maharashtra newspapers reported people for decades while Balochis die everyday and finally Afghans have two earthquakes protecting their distant Dost Mohammad friends? You are unwilling to help as an institution, as a government, as a democracy, as a Hindu.

Repeatedly the Liberal class is siding with Lefts, repeatedly the Conservatives are not doing for the Dalits what the Marwaris should be able to manage in a few years if made to understand correctly and given resources to do.

Heights of fallacies - Psychological warfare of the Abrahamic and the Anti-Bauddha Hindus

You are told by foolish Goras that Tamils are not your brethren, just look at your toes the reason for the bow feet is them. And the game is that you will buy an Orthodox Christian's Czech Bata shoes, or Aftab someone Flite but not from a Dalit because he will argue with you in the name of being a Hindu.

That aspect of the mind that exists on the rational is secondary in the Antahkaran, the first problem is that lurements in terms of poverty and feminine distress are rampant, you have such a prime example in A.R.Rahman, you have many such Christians too.

This whole mock and stare business - Meera Nair, M. Night Shyamal's The Village. Countless. I can give you as many examples as you like but that there is any rationality in Abrahamics or Communism? No Sir.

You have financial allurements, sociological bad naming and cheap, frothy mouthed fools doctrinating your people. Kashmir was given a poster boy in their Brahmin turned Muslim poet Iqbal, no one read Mirza Ghalib in Iran but they all read him. No one will read Manu Joseph but everyone will read Naipaul. No one wants anything to do with a stinking Chinese breath in the chilling warmthless border Ladakh but you will go and sit on top of Stupas so that the Archaeology Survey of India will be all beef stiff and put boards to not sit on them. You will have lakhs of dissenters in railway train burning in UP and Bihar for changes in governmental positions but they will not dissent against poverty, they will give only government exams and sit with their- Hindi speaking Muslim brethren will vote down to earth crook Yadavs but will not cry when Nitish Kumar will have to leave the BJP to save the country from an ecstatic foolish Jhar infested Turkey staring Mohammadens up in their feminine rot and stinking mouth decayed water wave to PFI. How many speak today after the earthquake? You have inner disquiet by Dalits raped by Sikhs in UP. You have psychological warfare whereby Dalits are being forced to side with Muslims and Christians or worse vote upper class Hindus to build temples and swoon to bureaucracy, wear Farsi neck scarfs, speak alcohol shop Gurumukhi, chant Jai Shree Ram not knowing how to buy a Ramayana and read. Clearly, the reason for plurality in India leading to democracy is not because the British gave it to you after princely states were looted but because consensus is at one thing and mandate at another. And no one gives a hoot what the Bauddhas, Jainas and Sannyasi Hindu fights and argues with when the Dalits are gone because you will find they are too drunk and shooting bar girls in iPhone shop fight frustration or leaf eating, tolerant Brahmins who will write poetry in Nastaliq or worse for libraries in European and Saudi tax money in Timbuktu.
